5. Additional information

- ◆ The ambassador and the first secretary were led into the gymnasium by a student and welcomed by the loud applause of the other students.
- ◆ With Turkish-Japanese interpretation, the ambassador spoke about Turkey's geographic characters, its past and present close relations with Japan, and food culture.
- ◆ During the Q & A time, each student who had a question came to the front and asked it directly to ambassador.
- ◆ Students made a booklet binding letters written in English about things popular among Japanese junior high school students. They asked the ambassador to pass it onto Turkish students of the same age.
